

LARRY A. DALE

Biography

A proud native of Prentiss, Mississippi, Larry moved to Florida with his mother and father, Harold and Marjorie Dale, in 1965. He is a graduate of Lyman High School and the University of Florida where he majored in Agronomy. He is married with five children and has been a resident and real estate developer in Seminole County for more than 40 years.

In the course of Larry's very active political and civic career, he has served in numerous capacities, including the Sanford Port Authority Board of Directors, East Central Florida Regional Planning Council, Seminole Community College Board of Trustees, Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department, and perhaps, most notably, as the Mayor of Sanford [1996-2001], a position he infused with vision, strength and an unwavering demand for accountability to the taxpayers.

Following his term of Mayor, Larry accepted the position of President/CEO of the Orlando Sanford International Airport. He continues to serve on the 18th Judicial Nominating Commission, Seminole County Development Advisory Board, METROPLAN Orlando, and the Private Business Association of Seminole County.
